A MOOC for teachers & policy makers using materials developed and insights gained in a 2 year long pilot project on tablet scenarios in 8 European countries. Come join us on this free, 5 week long course to explore how to use tablets for collaborative learning, content creation, personalised learning and the flipped classroom. We launch on 13th April.

Teacher Blogs

Linked with the webinars organised for the project teachers, this blog will display teachers’ thoughts, plans, and ideas and with tablets in classrooms. After each webinar, the teachers will write a reflective post on the given topic. Along the CCL project, this blog will provide an interesting insight into day to day teaching with tablets.
