

Example: student blog instructions from LSL summer school

The Scoop Ducks is the name of a group of Italian and Irish students who attended the Living Schools Lab Summer School. Their role was to act as journalists covering the event on Twitter and on dedicated blog <http://scoopsducks.wordpress.com>.

The way the work of the students was integrated with the overall program for the teacher participants was explained during the Learning Snack webinar Scoop Ducks: <http://lsl.eun.org/snack21>

Here are some technical instructions as well as an overview of the tasks of the students at the Summer School.

I. BLOGGING

Read and follow the instructions carefully.

1. When you want to add a blog post you must sign in with scoopduck and with the password. (Please don't share the password.)

A screenshot of the WordPress login interface. At the top center is the WordPress logo (a blue 'W' in a circle). Below it is a white login box with a light gray border. Inside the box, there are two input fields: the first is labeled 'Email or Username' and contains the text 'scoopduck'; the second is labeled 'Password' and is empty. Below the password field is a checkbox labeled 'Stay signed in' which is unchecked. To the right of the checkbox is a blue 'Log In' button.

2. Click on Post and New Post.

3. Write a title, start with the name of the author(s) between square brackets. If you want to save your work and continue later, click SAVE DRAFT. When completely finished you click on Publish. Please don't change any other settings.

II. TWITTER

Please add the hashtag #LSL_EU to your tweet so that it will appear on the tagboard and on the website.

Choose one of the following options:

1. If you have a Twitter account you can tweet in your own name. Add #LSL_EU to your tweets.
2. You can also tweet in the name of @scoopducks. It is NOT necessary to take an account on Twitter. You need an email address and a password to sign up. (Use a different password than your password of your email address!)

Please remember your email address and the password you created for this application. When you want to send a tweet you sign in. (bit.ly/twitterscoopducks)

Write and send your tweet. Don't forget to add #LSL_EU.
